

I don't understand why my right to peace and privacy in my own home should be overridden by overzealous Telemarketers. If I request that they "Do Not Call" then why should there be any time exemption. The NJ law should stand as is.